ARMY ROTC @ MIZZOU

DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY SCIENCE AND LEADERSHIP

Army ROTC is one of the best leadership courses in the country and is part of your college curriculum. Through Army ROTC you will learn firsthand what it takes to lead others, motivate groups, and conduct missions as an Officer in the Army. Upon graduation from Army ROTC, you will earn the bar of a Second Lieutenant and be commissioned into the Active Army, Army Reserve or Army National Guard and become a leader for life.

Army ROTC gives you the tools, training, and experience that will help you succeed in any competitive environment. If you're interested in at- tending college while learning what it takes to become an Army Officer, ROTC might be right for you. While teaching you valuable leadership skills, discipline, and team building, ROTC will provide a monthly stipend along with paying your tuition and fees for college. Because Army ROTC is an elective, you can participate your freshman and sophomore years without any obligation to join the Army. Round out your college experience by participating in other campus activities as well. You can have the best of two worlds, civilian and military, and get college experience unlike any thing else.

With over 16 occupational fields to choose from there is a reason that ROTC Cadets go on to become governors, CEO's and other successful community leaders. After Army ROTC, you will have what it takes to balance working with both civilian and enlisted personnel, instilling confidence as an Officer, a leader, a trainer, and a mentor. Army Officers may pursue additional specialized training and post-graduate education opportunities. As you progress and continue to grow as an Officer, you will be given more advanced positions of leadership. Here are just a few of the career fields the Army offers where you can immediately gain valuable experience upon graduation:

- Engineering (Horizontal, Vertical, Combat)
- Combat Arms specialties (Infantry, Armor, Field Artillery)
- Personnel Management
- Nursing (Medical Field)
- Finance
- Military Police
- Aviation
- Signal Corp (Communication)

The University of Missouri at Columbia is the host school for the Army ROTC program "Tiger Battalion" in the Central Region of Missouri. So even if you don't find the degree you want at UM- Columbia you can still participate with the Army ROTC program through one of our partnership schools:

- Central Methodist University
- Columbia College
- Westminster College
- William Woods University

Interested students or parents can find out more about the Army ROTC Program at the University of Missouri by calling (573) 999-1275 or (573) 882-2657
